“We for Düsseldorf” – 25,000 Euros for charitable associations in the city

Düsseldorf, 17 March 2017 – Düsseldorf's entrepreneur Josef Klüh, owner of Klüh Service Management GmbH, is once again supporting social organisations in the state capital this year with his initiative “We for Düsseldorf”. Josef Klüh donates a total amount of 25,000 Euros to charitable associations, which are selected by a jury.

The jury - Dr. Vera Geisel, the wife of Düsseldorf's Lord Mayor, Jonges Boss Wolfgang Rolshoven and Josef Klüh – chose seven associations from a large number of applications. The donations were presented to the representatives of the associations supported in a small ceremony. Among others, the following were delighted to receive a donation for their current projects: vision:teilen with its “gutenachtbus”, Königinnen und Helden e.V. with its campaign “Sonnenkinder” and Düsseldorfer Kids mit Pfiff e.V. with its initiative “SMS. Sei schlau. Mach mit. Sei fit”.
