

PRESS RELEASE

New order in the care market

Paracelsus clinics put their trust in Klüh Clinic Service

Düsseldorf, 20 April 2017 – On 1 April 2017, the cooperation between the Paracelsus clinics and Klüh Clinic Service started at nine locations throughout Germany; two further locations are to be added by October of this year. The service contract has a term of six years and includes services such as maintenance cleaning, bed preparation, operating room cleaning and operating room standby.

Peter Schnitzler Dipl. Kfm., Managing Director of the Paracelsus clinics said of the contract award: "Together with our institute for hospital hygiene, we created a target concept and sought service providers who meet our requirements. Klüh Clinic Service was able to assert itself against many other applicants in this selection process because the company offers high quality and economic efficiency."

"We look forward to this new task. The topics of employee integration and employee training now have top priority for us due to the personnel take-over", said Christian Wilms, Managing Director Sales at Klüh Clinic Service.

As a specialist company of the Düsseldorf-based multi-service provider Klüh, Clinic Service specialises in services in the health sector and operates nationwide in a variety of medical therapeutic institutions.

With around 40 institutions at a total of 23 locations, the owner-operated Paracelsus clinics are among the largest private hospital providers in Germany. The excellently equipped acute care hospitals and rehabilitation clinics enjoy a superb reputation. According to the current Focus business ranking, the hospital group is one of the top employers in Germany.
