

PRESS RELEASE

mitMenschPreis tendered for the fifth time

Klüh supports projects for the integration of disabled people

Düsseldorf, 29 November 2017 - The Bundesverband evangelische Behindertenhilfe e.V., a Protestant charitable association for the disabled, tendered the mitMenschPreis for the fifth time. The aim of the charity is to promote projects in the area of support for the disabled and social psychiatry. The circle of supporters of the social initiative also includes the Düsseldorf-based family business Klüh Service Management GmbH.

Alongside the benefactor of the 10,000 Euro prize, the financial consultancy Curacon from Münster, the multi-service provider Klüh also supports the initiative, which promotes projects which "provide a tangible, recognisable benefit for people with high support needs, and help to increase their quality of life."

"For a family-run company like Klüh, social commitment traditionally has a high priority in the corporate culture. The mitMenschPreis makes an important contribution for people who need a high level of support for more self-determined participation in society. And with our commitment, we also wish to contribute to this.", says Reiner Worbs, Holding Managing Director of Klüh.

The application deadline is 31 March 2018 (limitation period). Further information as well as the application form can be found on the website of mitMenschPreis (www.mitMenschPreis.de).
