Fun fair fireworks in Düsseldorf

Klüh Multiservices welcomes more than 800 guests to the onboard party

Düsseldorf, 20 July 2018 - The spectacular aerial fireworks display of the "Biggest fun fair on the Rhine" in Düsseldorf is an attraction to which the family-owned company Klüh is again inviting customers and employees from around the world this year. On Friday, the company owner Josef Klüh and his holding company management will welcome around 800 guests, including Lord Mayor Thomas Geisel and his wife Dr. Vera Geisel, to a trip on the Rhine against the magnificent backdrop of the fair in Düsseldorf Oberkassel.

Alongside dinner and live music, the guests of the Düsseldorf-based FM company, including executives from the international Klüh subsidiaries, will enjoy a direct view of the magnificent fireworks from the 85 m long cruiser "MS RheinFantasie" at its anchoring place right in front of the fun fair.

Frank Theobald, Chairman of Klüh's Managing Board: "The Klüh boat party has been an integral part of the scheduling for many of our customers for years. We are very happy about that. Here we have the opportunity to talk to our customers in a relaxed atmosphere - and above all to say THANK YOU for the long-term customer relationships that characterise our company."
