“We for Düsseldorf” – new round of applications running

25,000 Euros for the children of Düsseldorf – Klüh initiative focuses on the promotion of nursery schools

Düsseldorf, 20.11.2018 – “We for Düsseldorf”, the private donation campaign by the entrepreneur Josef Klüh, is entering a new round. For years, the initiative has supported Düsseldorf’s charitable organisations and their social projects. For the award of next year’s prizes, “We for Düsseldorf” is focusing on the nurseries in its home town. In 2019 too, a total of 25,000 Euros in donations are to be distributed.

Around 400 nursery schools are to be contacted in coordination with the council of Düsseldorf and can apply for financial support for a specific project. A jury consisting of Dr. Vera Geisel, the wife of the Lord Mayor, the head of the Düsseldorf Jonges Wolfgang Rolshoven and the entrepreneur Josef Klüh, decides on the allocation of the funds.

Düsseldorf’s nurseries can apply for donations for their planned projects from now until 25 January 2019. Further information and the application form are available at <https://www.klueh.de/de/Wir-fuer-Duesseldorf.htm>.
