Very good start to the year for caterer

Klüh moves into the kitchen of the state parliament

Düsseldorf, 07.01.2019 – The caterers of the Düsseldorf-based multiservice company Klüh are starting the business year 2019 with a very attractive new order: From January, the cooks of Klüh Catering GmbH will be “governing” the kitchen of the state parliament of North Rhine-Westphalia and running the restaurant. The contract was publicly tendered and includes the catering for 199 members of the state parliament and all the employees at a total of about 500 people. Frank Theobald, Chairman of the Executive Board of the Klüh holding company: “We are delighted that we were able to convince the state parliament of North Rhine-Westphalia of our concept. This adds another top reference to our customer list at our home base in Düsseldorf.”

The non-public restaurant in the state parliament building at the Media Harbour in Düsseldorf has seating for 380 people in the indoor and outdoor areas. Varied menu lines with high-quality ingredients are intended to ensure that the members of the state parliament and their employees feel fit and healthy. This also includes the new Klüh product line “Power Sources”, which sees food as the elixir of life that provides power and energy.

Klüh Catering runs around 150 company restaurants nationwide. In the state parliament of North Rhine-Westphalia, alongside lunch, the catering team also provides snacks and hospitality services at conferences and meetings as well as hospitality for visitors. Managing the coffee bar in the foyer and the vending machines are also among our tasks. The contract runs for two years and includes the option to extend to three or renew on an annual basis.
