Company supports campaign in the run up to Christmas with committed staff and donations

Klüh employees distribute food parcels at the “Düsseldorfer Tafel”

Düsseldorf, 11.12.2019 – Ten Klüh employees voluntarily supported the annual Christmas package campaign of the “Düsseldorfer Tafel e.V.” association as part of the private initiative “Wir für Düsseldorf” by company owner Josef Klüh. The employees spent five hours helping to distribute the parcels to fellow Düsseldorf citizens in need at St. Benedikt School on Charlottenstraße.

On top of that, Klüh Catering provided the team of 30 helpers with a hearty breakfast, and Klüh security staff ensured that everything went smoothly.

Together with the “Jonges” boss Wolfgang Rolshoven and Josef Klüh, Dr. Vera Geisel, the wife of Lord Mayor Thomas Geisel and juror at “Wir für Düsseldorf”, welcomed the helpers. Frank Theobald, Chairman of the Management Board of Klüh Holding, had a donation cheque for Eva Fischer of the “Düsseldorfer Tafel” for the institution’s ongoing work, feeding the needy for 25 years!

Frank Theobald: “With this, Mr. Klüh is once again setting an example of corporate social responsibility and I personally am delighted that our employees spontaneously agreed to support this charity event. That speaks for the spirit of our company.” The work of the Düsseldorfer Tafel is becoming “increasingly important”, says Theobald. Demand in the state capital has increased by around ten percent, in line with the national average. And as Klüh’s Managing Director says: “The increasing number of pensioners in need should give us special cause for concern and urge us to take responsibility. In Düsseldorf alone, some 9,000 senior citizens live in poverty. That’s something we should not be prepared to accept.”
