

PRESS RELEASE

The security of the Wehrhahn line in good hands

Rheinbahn again opts for Klüh

Düsseldorf, 28.07.2020. Klüh Security has once again been commissioned by Rheinbahn with security and conductor/guard services. From 1 August 2020, the trained specialists of the quality provider for security will again be on duty on the Wehrhahn line. The unusual and popular urban railway line with its innovative and attractively designed underground stations makes a significant contribution to the quality of life in Düsseldorf.

Every day, up to 30 security personnel will be responsible for ensuring general safety and order and for carrying out the passenger service. A further essential part of the contract is guarding and cordoning off platforms and controlling passenger flows at events. As soon as major events such as football matches, the traditional Rhine fair in summer or Japan Day with the "Japanese fireworks" can take place again, Klüh Security will safeguard them in the area of the Wehrhahn line with up to 80 employees.

Axel Hartmann, Managing Director of Klüh Security: "As a traditional family business based in Düsseldorf, we naturally feel a special affinity with Rheinbahn. What's more, all our employees are very familiar with the requirements and circumstances of this customer. We are delighted by the repeat order, for which both our experience and our response concept based on local presence are decisive." The partnership between the multiservices company Klüh and Rheinbahn has existed more or less since 2002. Klüh Cleaning also works for the local transport company of the state capital.
