

PRESS RELEASE

New ranking success

Klüh once again number 1 in care catering

Düsseldorf, 17.05.2023 – In this year's market analysis, gvpraxis has named Klüh Catering the leading contract caterer in the area of clinics and hospitals for the tenth time in a row. Moreover, according to the trade journal for professional community catering, the company holds fourth place when it comes to the catering market as a whole.

Thorsten Greth, Managing Director of Klüh Catering: "The result of the sector ranking crowns our success story of last year's 30th anniversary. Together with further awards, seals, new contracts and contract renewals from long-standing clients, this renewed distinction by gvpraxis once more confirms that we are maintaining our high-quality standards, which we regard as the foundation of our success."

Further awards for consistent quality orientation

Alongside its success in the gvpraxis rankings, in recent months the catering division of the Klüh group of companies has also enjoyed first place in customer satisfaction*, second place in customer service and the MARKETING.AWARD in bronze for innovative sustainability measurement in company restaurants. Klüh Catering is also the holder of the "Frankfurt Prize", an award that stands for pioneering spirit and, among other things, pays tribute to forward-looking concepts combined with customer-oriented management and successful entrepreneurial action.
