New Catering contract

Kreissparkasse Reutlingen commissions Klüh with catering for its employees

Düsseldorf, 17.10.2023 – Kreissparkasse Reutlingen has commissioned the Catering Division of the multi-service provider Klüh to cater for its employees, a task which the bank previously carried out itself. Klüh Catering was awarded the open-ended contract, which is set to start on 1 February 2024, in the course of a public tender.

“With Klüh, we have a reliable and experienced partner at our side”, said Tobias Weber, Head of Operational Logistics at Kreissparkasse Reutlingen. “We are confident that the catering services for our staff and guests are in very good hands and look forward to a pleasant collaboration with our existing kitchen team.” Under the contract, Klüh Catering will be providing the necessary management staff, consisting of operational and kitchen management, while Kreissparkasse Reutlingen will continue to supply the auxiliary staff required in the areas of production, service and dishwashing.

The services to be provided by Klüh Catering cover breakfast, lunch and snacks as well as catering for conferences and special events. The diners will enjoy a high-quality gastronomic experience with an extensive range of dishes, placing great emphasis on fresh products and attractive presentation. The lunch dishes on offer, for example, are mostly prepared fresh in front of the guests using the front cooking method. A dessert station, soups and several tea kitchens complete the offer.

Kreissparkasse Reutlingen is the leading financial services provider in the district of Reutlingen and part of the Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe, the largest financial syndicate in Europe and the market leader in Germany.
