Expansion of the management team

Klüh Cleaning welcomes new top sales manager on board

Düsseldorf, 12.12.2023 – Klüh Cleaning, a subsidiary of the Klüh Group, has strengthened its management team. On 1 December 2023, Andreas Tetzlaff (48) joined Christian Wilms (57) and Daniel Carnol (47) as a further Managing Director of the innovative quality provider of commercial cleaning services. In his new position, Tetzlaff is responsible for the marketing and implementation of digital cleaning concepts to further optimise comprehensive customer operations, service provision and purchasing.

“We are delighted to have recruited Andreas Tetzlaff, who is a proven sales expert”, explains Frank Theobald, Chairman of Klüh’s Executive Board. “Together with his management team, he will be focusing on the further ambitious growth of our Cleaning division, ensuring it is on a sustainable and future-orientated footing for our group of companies. We welcome him to the Klüh family and wish him every success and happiness in carrying out his diverse sales tasks.”

Andreas Tetzlaff has many years of expertise in the sector. In his last position as Managing Director of Gegenbauer Services GmbH and Gegenbauer Aviation Services GmbH, he was responsible for sales, managed integrated companies and subsidiaries and provided operational support to clients from various sectors.

With maintenance cleaning, glass and façade cleaning, industrial cleaning, basic cleaning, special cleaning and grounds maintenance, the Cleaning division of the Klüh Group contributes to maintaining the value of properties and facilities. For this, the quality provider’s cleaning experts develop customer-specific concepts and implement them in a targeted and cost-efficient process using the latest cleaning techniques and methods. Through sustainable initiatives combined with digital innovations, the company also helps to improve the environmental footprint of its client companies.
