Klüh Security awarded the EcoVadis silver medal

Düsseldorf, 19.12.2023 – Klüh Security has been awarded the silver medal by EcoVadis, an independent provider of sustainability ratings. With this certification, the subsidiary of Klüh – a multi-service provider – meets the requirements for sustainable corporate management and provides its customers, suppliers, partners and employees with a clear signal of its intentions as a business with this recognised label.

Dr Marc Bieling, Managing Director of Klüh Security: “We are delighted to be awarded the silver medal, and the associated recognition of our sustainability successes to date. Simultaneously, this award does not represent the end point for us, but another important step on our way to continuously improving all processes in the company and ambitiously committing ourselves to a transparent and sustainable supply chain.”

As part of the underlying assessment, EcoVadis reviewed Klüh Security’s sustainability management approach in the areas of environment, labour and human rights, ethics and sustainable procurement. In all four assessment areas, the company is considered well above-average compared to the security services sector. Klüh Security achieved outstanding results, particularly in the areas of the environment and labour and human rights. On balance, the security division of the multi-service provider Klüh is in the top 12 per cent of all companies validated by EcoVadis this year.

Klüh Security is one of Germany’s leading quality providers in the security industry, with over 3,500 employees. The private security company, spanning over 70 years of tradition, offers its customers tailor-made concepts and integrated security solutions through a network of competent security technology partners. Its long-standing customers include many highly security-relevant companies, including the German Armed Forces, airports, shipping harbours, energy companies, banks, high-tech manufacturers and healthcare facilities.
